

HUGH HAMILTON

Hugh Hamilton is the 5th generation of a large wine dynasty and is regarded as the black sheep of the family. So when it comes to tasting his wines, you can expect to enjoy the difference. The black sheep experience is extraordinary. Hugh is a master of a most reprobate range of varieties from the classics to the more eclectic.

The TRICKSTER

PINOT GRIGIO 100%

Most winemakers (myself included) care little for fashion style – but wine style is critical! Is this a Pinot ‘gris’ style or Pinot ‘grigio’ style? The latter, dear reader, the latter. Why? Because we deliberately picked the fruit at the lower end of its acceptable range to retain the quintessential crisp, light, fine qualities of both the variety and the region. It’s crisper and drier than your average Gris. There’s a reason for that – it’s all about the food. Read on...

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

I want to be annoyed - there was so little Pinot Grigio on the vine in 2019. But really, with quality this good it's difficult to stay mad. If the crop was half of what we wanted then at least it can be said that it was twice as good.

BOUQUET & PALATE

Feather light, bright and crisp. Orange blossom, white pear and bananas like a fresh tropical breeze. Palate as fresh as the perfume, crunchy, lightly textured, intense and lingering. Zippy, zesty; the stuff of Spring.
